ABOUT THE BOOK

Squeaky Speaks, A Coloring & Activity Book For Children Surviving Domestic Violence is a vital educational tool that helps children break the silence surrounding domestic violence by encouraging them to speak out about their experiences through artistic expression. The Stop Shops™ that are included in the activity section of the book can be utilized in educational, clinical, and family settings to facilitate discussions about feelings and the cyclical pattern of behaviors that constitute family violence.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Dr. Doris Forté is Founder and CEO of You're Living Proof, a 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization that assists survivors of domestic violence. Dr. Forté created the storyline for Squeaky Speaks, A Coloring & Activity Book for Children Surviving Domestic Violence.

As a bilingual English and Spanish writer and spoken word artist, Camryn Barganier works with children to encourage positive self esteem through art and creative expression. Camryn Barganier is the designer and facilitator of The Stop Shops™, the practicum concept for The Squeaky Wheel Project.

Dr. Doris Forté and Camryn Barganier, a dynamic mother and daughter team, are living proof of what can happen when the cycle of domestic violence and its generational consequences are broken for once and for all.
